

TECHNICAL AND ADVISORY SERVICES • ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

JAIME STEEDMAN-LYDE, CIH

EDUCATION

BS - Chemistry - University of Akron, Akron, OH - 1988
Fundamentals of Industrial Hygiene - NatlSCO - 1990
Practical HPLC Methods Development - ACS - 1995
Regulatory Compliance - Center for Professional Advancement - 1998
Sampling and Evaluating Airborne Asbestos Dust Equivalent to NIOSH 582 -2011

PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIAL

ABIH - Certified Industrial Hygienist - Certificate Number 8076C

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Health Science Associates (HSA) - Director Business Development, Project Manager, Technical Services
Los Alamitos, CA (October 2010-Present)

Responsible for identifying and overseeing new business opportunities, cultivating current relationships and investigating avenues for potential growth. Seek out and respond to RFIs, RFPs, and RFQs. Provide technical support and initiate projects for clients, facilitate field operations and review final reports and specifications. Participate with the training team to bring new capabilities into the training department.

LA Testing/EMSL Analytical -Technical Manager (Jan 2005-Oct 2010)
Garden Grove, CA

Technical Manager (2007-2010)-Manage the accreditation status of a fully accredited AIHA Industrial Hygiene Laboratory, State of California Hazardous Waste Laboratory and NVLAP Accredited Asbestos Fiber Analysis Laboratory. Manage the quality Assurance Program, Present at Indoor Air Quality Seminars offered nation wide. Responsible for initiating and validating new technologies. Advise clients on sampling protocols for monitoring of toxic substances in air, water and bulk materials.

Laboratory Manager (2005-2007)-Hire, train, supervise and direct laboratory activities for a 16 person analytical laboratory staff within a fully accredited AIHA Industrial Hygiene Laboratory, State of California Hazardous Waste Laboratory and NVLAP Accredited Asbestos Fiber Analysis Laboratory.

Health Science Associates (HSA) - Lab Director (Jan 1999-Jan 2005)
Los Alamitos, CA

Hire, train, supervise and direct laboratory activities for a 25 person analytical laboratory staff within a fully accredited AIHA Industrial Hygiene Laboratory, State of California Hazardous Waste and Drinking Water Laboratory and NVLAP Accredited Asbestos Fiber Analysis Laboratory.

Advise clients on sampling protocols for monitoring of toxic substances in air, water and bulk materials.

Supervise the implementation of new capabilities in the laboratory to reflect state-of-the-art methodologies as promulgated by NIOSH, OSHA and the EPA.

Jaime Steedman-Lyde, CIH

Page 2

Nexstar Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
San Dimas, CA

(Apr 1996 - Dec 1998)

Research Associate III- Develop, write and validate HPLC and GC methods for pharmaceutical compounds. Write analytical methods, standard operating procedures and validation reports.

Until December 1997- Quality Control Chemist III - Independently analyze finished product, stability and in-process samples using HPLC and GC methods. Responsibilities include tracking a variety of cGMP paperwork, batch record review, C of A review, review of analyst data, validation of data, communicating with contract laboratories and training new analysts.

KRMS/NATLSCO
Long Grove, IL

(Jul 1989 - Mar 1996)

Senior Environmental Chemist - In charge of the development of HPLC methods for industrial hygiene samples of pharmaceutical compounds. Extensive client contact involved. Scheduled and monitored methods development projects. Established and maintained Illinois EPA drinking water certification. Trained analysts on different types of instrumentation, developed standard operating procedures, estimated project costs and wrote monthly reports.

Until January of 1995 performed the duties of an analytical chemist utilizing a variety of instrumentation including AA, ICP, GF, IC, HPLC, X-ray and GC/FID.

ICN Biochemicals -Analytical Chemist
Cleveland, OH

(May 1988 - Jul 1989)

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Served for two years on the Board of Directors, Chicago Section of the AIHA.

Served as Government Affairs Officer, Southern California AIHA local section.

Served for two years California Industrial Hygiene Council Treasurer

Served for two years California Industrial Hygiene Council President

Current Member of US Green Building Council, Professional Environmental Marketing Association, American Industrial Hygiene Association (AIHA), Southern California Local Section AIHA, Western States Petroleum Association

PRESENTATIONS

Indoor Air Quality Association, Los Angeles Chapter - Sampling for Volatile Organic Compounds Using TO15

California Industrial Hygiene Council Annual Conference - EPA TO15, A Useful Tool for the IH Toolbox

Public Agency of Safety Management Association- Indoor Air Quality Sampling and Evaluation

Indoor Air Quality Association, Orange County Chapter -Formaldehyde Sampling and Analysis